

Mission

To achieve a diverse membership that participates in the Missouri Association for Career and Technical Education and to help students and educators embrace and learn from diversity.

Diversity Action Committee Missouri ACTE

Goals

- To continually support diversity in Missouri ACTE.
- To recognize individuals and institutions who promote diversity
- To award an annual stipend to an outstanding individual or organization that encourages diversity.

Redefining diversity means changing our perspective of how we educate students for the future. The Diversity Action Committee is committed to increasing leadership opportunities for members of ACTE and recognizing individuals and businesses for their vast contributions to diversity in the workplace.
